SITUATION INFORMATION REPORTCALENDAR OF TENTATIVELY SCHEDULED ACTIVITIES

Asterisked items are either reported for the first time, or contain additions or changes to previously reported activities.

*November, Washington, D. C.

The BPP continues to schedule the second session of a constitutional convention in Washington sometime during November. Last week a three-judge appeals court turned down the Panther request for use of Washington's National Guard Armory, and the Panthers have so far been unable to obtain other suitable quarters. Panther attorneys are now petitioning for a full nine-judge appeals court hearing. The tentative dates for the convention are 27-29 November. It is now believed likely that the Panthers may have to postpone their convention. Howard University continues to be the most likely location for a Panther convention at Washington in November. W.H. 1st

*9 November, Nationwide

Michael Lerner, a leader of the Seattle Liberation Front, has announced demonstrations in a number of U. S. cities on the above date to support the trial of the "Seattle 8." The "Seattle 8" refers to 8 members of the Seattle Liberation Front including Lerner who are charged with violation of the antiriot laws and whose trial begins at Seattle on 9 November. Lerner and others of the front are allegedly displeased with poor national media coverage and the demonstrations will focus on media offices demanding that the trial receive daily coverage. Lerner, along with Rennie Davis, since at least last August has been pushing the plan to shut down Washington, D. C. next May. Lerner apparently believes that the Seattle trial should receive the same in depth news coverage as the now famous Chicago trial of Davis, Dellinger, et al., received last year. FILE 44-3886-100

*9 November, New York

An extradition hearing in New York is to be held for Angela Davis on the above date in which it is expected that she will be returned to California for trial on charges of kidnapping and murder. Miss Davis has understandably been receiving considerable publicity in the Daily World, the East Coast newspaper of the CPUSA. The Daily World as well as other radical papers are attempting to pressure Gov. Rockefeller into refusing to sign extradition papers. There will undoubtedly be a sizable and probably angry demonstration at 100 Centre Street in Manhattan during the hearing which is scheduled at 10 a.m.

*11 November, Washington, D.C.

The predominately black National Alliance of Postal and Federal Employees are scheduling a rally on the above date. The group which is protesting racial discrimination in Government employment practices will meet at 7:30 p.m. at a church at 11th and R Street, N.W. Among the speakers will be local activists Julius Hobson and Anita Shelton.

*11 November, Potsdam, New York

A Youth International Party (Yippie) spokesman at Clarkson College has announced an ultimatum for the Federal Government to remove military recruiting stations from Potsdam by the 11th. If they are not removed, the Yippies threaten action. FILE 11/11/68

*15-21 November, New York

The National Coalition Against War, Racism, and Repression, the CP-dominated successor organization to the New Move, has announced plans for demonstrations at the UN Building on the above dates. The group reportedly will present an end-the-war petition to the UN. On 21 November the demonstration will be in the form of a march from the Columbus Circle to the UN Building with the possibility of some acts of civil disobedience at the conclusion of the march. FILE 11/15/68

*17 November, New Haven, Connecticut

BPP leader Bobby Seale and Ericka Huggins, a New Haven Panther, are scheduled to go on trial in New Haven on the above date. Seale and Huggins are charged in connection with the kidnapping and murder of fellow Black Panther Alex Rackley. There will probably be demonstrations at the courthouse of Panthers and other assorted radicals.

*22 November, South Bend, Indiana

The mid-West region of NCAWRR under the domination of the CPUSA is planning a demonstration for South Bend in an effort to stop the war. As part of the coalition for this activity a number of CP-dominated organizations are represented including the Chicago Peace Council, the Michigan City Peace Council, the National Coordinating Committee for Trade Union Action and Democracy, and others. South-bend has been selected as the site because it is the center of a number of alleged ills of current interest to the NCAWRR. Among the slogans for the South Bend action are "immediate end to the war and withdrawal of troops and supplies," "reform the tax structure to make the rich pay," "guaranteed minimum income of $5,500," "stipends to all students," etc.
